As president of Arizona Chapter #275, I invite you to join us on January 28, 2006 for the Ahepa District 20 Mid-Winter Conference. Our chapter, in conjunction with the Daughters of Penelope Phoebus Chapter #146 will be hosting this year's event. We promise to provide an interesting and informative program featuring speakers of national notoriety discussing issues of importance to the Hellenic community.

Tucson is located in the heart of the Old Pueblo where you can experience the beauty of the cultural southwest, rich in tradition and proud heritage. Tucson has numerous national parks, arts, shopping, museums, and many other attractions sure to satisfy the most discerning visitor. We are also planning an excursion to the nearby St Anthony in the Desert Monastery on Friday, the 27th, the day before the conference. For those that have not been to the monastery, it is a breathtaking sight not to be missed.

The location of this year's conference is the Windmill Suites nestled in the foothills of the picturesque Catalina Mountains. The hotel is within two miles of the St. Demetrios Church (the location of the Glendi on Saturday night) and The Tucson Mall, featuring over a hundred shops including many major department stores as well as many unique one of a kind stores. Those that have attended an Ahepa conference or convention in Tucson with us in the past can certainly attest that Arizona Chapter #275's reputation as the "Hospitality Chapter" is well deserved.

Please, come, join us in January, and enjoy weather that has made Tucson a winter destination for thousands of people from across the country and abroad. We look forward to seeing you.
